-Open world full of adventures-Minimalist graphics-Two main characters to discover-A small pared-down soundtrack-4 bosses to defeat in 8 distinct levels-Lots of gameplay secrets-Hints will be given when you need them  Game Pro only features a "precise" controls with a controller to avoid all kind of weird actions while the normal controls is used everywhere else Go through the game in a few minutes! Well that is probably not possible because there are lots of secrets to find in a game made for 2 hours and more! This is my first game but I hope to make lots of others as long as I can. If you want to give me a game advice, suggestion or need anything specific in the game, don't hesitate to contact me! Build: Build is a hard game developed for 2 years. I worked on this game without giving up on any of it. A full year went by and there were dozens of "I need to do this" and "I need to do that" bug fixes. I want to thank my friends for sharing their tech for me. I also want to thank all the people who helped me during my struggles with this project and the game, it was a long road but this was very cool! Presentation: I really want this game to be better in every sense, animation, sound design and game level design. This is my dream. Game levels: Each level is an adventure made by me to give myself a sense of accomplishment and a huge challenge for the player. Level design : Game levels are from 50 to 100 minutes of gameplay (usually around 80 minutes). The levels are created for 4 main reasons : 1) Fulfill a story requirement in each level2) Make the player feel like a huge badass3) Do a lot of game mechanics in order to increase the challenge4) Make the level's design interesting and have lots of secrets Game mechanics: Game mechanics are things used in game in order to increase the challenge :1) Change the environment in each level2) Make all the items break after a few uses3) Give bad descriptions to items in order to increase the "nudity" level Design : Design is the art of choosing and composing game levels in a way that make them interesting. 2D graphic design : 2D graphic design is different and Endangered The days of dewy-eyed romance are over. Rather, they're just faded memories, an inevitable byproduct of life. But some love struck souls will forever pursue their chances of finding "the one." Mississippi tea roses bloom in May and early June. Christmas pots for Christmas wreaths, much larger than what you could buy for $5.00 or $10.00, with gold and silver tinsel and lovely red ribbon, can be ordered for $25.00 plus $5.00 shipping. The wreaths are almost identical to ones now available, but the price has gone up. You can buy Christmas pots and wreaths for Valentine's Day next year and throughout the year. There's no hurry in getting them ordered. You can have them here at the shop until next Christmas, next Valentine's Day, or during any other holiday or time when you are waiting for someone special. No one in his right mind would buy a wreath or Christmas pot for a house full of people. Not only would the owners find the perfect plant in the store to put in each one, it probably doesn't look very pretty when you get it home. But it is much different with your plant. When you give a gift of this type, you'd better make sure it looks really good. Because it will be seen many times or not at all. I find this entirely too true. There's a reason plants have higher emotional value than jewelry or other types of gifts. People give gifts to make themselves feel good about themselves when they aren't feeling well. But you will always want something better for yourself. For example, right now I'd be tempted to give you the same piece I am pinching out of my stock of peppermint schnapps with dark-brown food coloring and use it as lip balm. It would probably work wonders because the odor of sweet peppermint would mask the bite and throat irritants caused by the alcohol. Both of those are reported to work for treatment of sinus problems. Instead I'm going to give you a banana and half a cup of dark-brown food coloring. Even if you don't eat the food coloring, it's nice to know that your kid is loving it. And it will probably work wonders on a green banana. Trust me. Because I'm feeling a bit blue, I'm making you this gift.
